You arrive at the Victorian train station at the end of a long day. The sun glints off the water as you cross the bridge, and eagles slowly circle over the reservoir. As you make your way down the tree-lined street, you hear your children playing in the cul-de-sac that you now call home. Yes, life is good. You've got everything you need - a beautiful yard with patio and deck for barbecues, a living room and a family room on different levels so everyone has their own space, a beautifully finished basement with an office for those days when you are working from home, a cozy fireplace to snuggle up to on those cold winter nights ahead. Beautifully updated and maintained, your new home is ready for you to move right in. It's practical as well as pretty with a mud room, attached garage, central air, electrical panel for generator, garden shed, composite deck, alarm, sprinklers, hardwood floors and more.
